

Marianne Heydt Munce, JD, MBA, RD

Marianne Heydt Munce is a healthcare attorney who provides transactional and healthcare regulatory compliance advice to hospitals and numerous other healthcare providers. Marianne assisted CFIT in obtaining its state license and meeting its healthcare regulatory obligations when it initially opened. At the time, she was an attorney with the Los Angeles office of the law firm Hooper, Lundy & Bookman. She was the Sr. Director, Policies & Training in Tenet Healthcare Corporation's Compliance Department from 2003-2005. She received her law degree from UCLA School of Law in 2000, MBA from the Peter Drucker School of Management at Claremont University, and bachelor's degree in Nutrition & Dietetics from Loma Linda University.

